Notes to the financial statements

December 31, 2020

1. Nature and continuance of operations

Halifax Young Women's Christian Association (the "Association") is a charitable, voluntary organization that provides support to build economic security, promote wellness and create opportunities for women, girls and their families by providing a strong voice and integrated services. The Association is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act and accordingly is exempt from income taxes, provided certain requirements of the Income Tax Act are met.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which assume that the Association will continue to operate in the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles using Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations ("ASNPO") in Part III of the CPA Handbook.

Fund accounting

The Association uses fund accounting and accordingly, resources are classified for accounting purposes into funds based on specific activities or objectives. The following funds are being used:

Unrestricted Fund

The Unrestricted Fund accounts for the Association's excess of revenue over expenditures from program delivery, development and Association services.

Capital Reserve Fund

The Capital Reserve Fund has been established by the Association to support unbudgeted repairs, maintenance or renovation costs or such costs that would result in an annual unrestricted deficit.

Operating Reserve Fund

The Operating Reserve Fund has been established by the Association to provide stability in the event of an annual unrestricted fund deficit or unexpected events that results in significant negative operating cash flow impacts.

Strategic Priority Reserve Fund

The Strategic Priority Reserve Fund has been established by the Association to help fund future initiatives such as new programming investments, operational investments, training and development or testing of new ideas and concepts that advance the mission of the Association.

Funds held in trust

Based on the funding agreement between the Association and the Woman's Community Space, funds are considered to be restricted and are to be held and administered by the Association.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Capital assets

Capital assets are initially recorded at cost and subsequently at cost less accumulated amortization. Capital asset purchases are capitalized in the year of acquisition, and amortization expense is recorded using the straight-line method of amortization for each asset category, except land, over their estimated useful lives at the following rates:

Buildings	40 years
Building improvements	15 years
Appliances	8 years
Computer equipment	3 years
Furniture and equipment	5 years
Leaseholds	over the term of the lease

When capital assets no longer have any long term service potential to the Association, the excess of its net carrying amount over any residual value is recognized as an expense in the statements of operations. Any write downs recognized are not reversed.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with ASNPO requires that management make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenditures during the year. Certain of these estimates require subjective judgments by management that may be uncertain. These estimates are reviewed periodically and adjustments are made to earnings as appropriate in the year they become known. These items include allowance for doubtful accounts related to receivables and useful lives of capital assets. Actual results could differ from those reported.

Revenue recognition

The Association follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Deferred revenue represents amounts received for the purposes of expenditures not yet incurred. These revenues will be recognized as income when the amounts are expended.

Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Revenues from program fees are recognized as the program services are provided and collection is reasonably assured.

Interest and dividend revenue are recorded on an accrual basis.

Realized gains or loss on the sale of investments are the difference between the proceeds received and the cost of investments sold.

Unrealized gains or losses on investments represents the difference between the carrying value at the year end and the carrying value at the previous year end or purchase value during the year, less the reversal of previously recognized unrealized gains and losses in respect of disposals during the year.

Halifax Young Women's Christian Association

Notes to the financial statements

Revenue recognition (continued)

Miscellaneous revenues are recognized as revenue when the funds are received or receivable, and collation is reasonably assured.

Pledges for donations are not recorded in the financial statements.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and balances with banks and bank indebtedness.

Long term investments

Long term investments consist of high interest savings account, guaranteed investment certificates and equities. The investments are stated at fair value. The unrealized gain or loss on investments, being the difference between cost and fair value, is included in the statement of revenues and expenditures. Fair values of equities are established by year end quoted market prices.

Donated services

Donated services are recognized in the period the services are performed, provided fair value can be determined; otherwise such amounts are not recognized.

Deferred capital funding

Deferred capital funding, including government capital funding, is required to be deferred and amortized into revenue on the same basis that the related capital asset is amortized.

Financial instruments

Initial measurement

Financial instruments are measured at fair value when issued or acquired. For financial instruments subsequently measured at cost or amortized cost, fair value is adjusted by the amount of the related financing fees and transaction costs. Transaction costs and financing fees relating to financial instruments that are measured subsequently at fair value are recognized in operations in the year in which they are incurred.

Subsequent measurement

At each reporting date, the Association measures its financial assets and liabilities at cost or amortized cost (less impairment in the case of financial assets), except for investments, which must be measured at fair value. The Association uses the effective interest rate method to amortize any premiums, discounts, transaction fees and financing fees to the statement of revenues and expenditures. The financial instruments measured at amortized cost are cash and cash equivalents, funds held in trust, receivables, investments, payables and accrued liabilities, deposits, trust liabilities and long term debt.

Notes to the financial statements

For financial assets measured at cost or amortized cost, the Association regularly assesses whether there are any indications of impairment. If there is an indication of impairment, and the Association determines that there is a significant adverse change in the expected timing or amount of future cash flows from the financial asset, it recognizes an impairment loss in the statement of revenues and expenditures. Any reversals of previously recognized impairment losses are recognized in the statement of revenues and expenditures in the year the reversal occurs.

The Association's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, funds held in trust, receivables, investments, payables and accrued liabilities, deposits, trust liabilities and long term debt. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Association is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying value, unless otherwise noted.

10. Impacts of COVID-19

In March 2020, the 2019 coronavirus disease outbreak ("COVID-19") was recognized as a pandemic by the World Health Organization ("WHO"). In response, several measures have been taken by local governments to limit or restrict business operations which has disrupted the activities of many entities, including the Association, and has impacted financial results during the year and could impact future results.

The Association has strategically managed the risks associated with COVID-19 by running modified versions of its programs, implementing a system of continuous monitoring over funding and securing additional financial support in the form of government grants to assist in program and other related costs.

Actual future results may differ materially from the Association's current estimates as the scope of COVID-19 evolves, or if the duration of disruption is longer than currently anticipated.
